Miss Scarlet asks if she is “expressly forbidden” from traveling during the investigation, as her employer gave her a huge list of errands to run before their upcoming trip to a notable London auction house. This list requires her to visit twenty city landmarks (of mysterious character) in as few steps as possible, starting with NORTH TRANSEPT, CHERLIEU ABBEY and ending at SUNBURNT MERMAN TANS. You gather that Scarlet:

- visits the CATHEDRAL OF ST. ASCETIC three times, as her 6th, 8th, and 17th landmark.
- visits CLAM’S CASINO directly before visiting the GRAVESTONE OF THE MAYOR.

Can you piece together her movements before she books it out of town? Better yet, can you find out who she had plans to meet up with?

Some rail lines contain junctions. At junctions, trains may go straight or make 45° turns.

Two landmarks are a step apart if and only if they are consecutive stops on a particular rail line.

Some stations are connected by multiple lines. The BLOOD LINE runs limited service between Stations 5 and 8.
